PINE LOG

Foreword

We have many years before us, and as time rolls on, we can look back into this book to relive cherished memories of our friends, teachers, our struggles, and achievements.

We, the Class of 1961, are graduating. We will greet the future confidently, with our best foot forward.

Dedication

Because we owe them more than can ever be repaid, more than can ever be told; because they recognize our faults and love us anyway; and because all that we are we owe to them, we, the Class of 1961, gratefully dedicate our Yearbook to our Parents.

Our Parents

ADMINISTRATION

MR. WILLIAM P. FAHEY

President of
The Board of Education

Message

Give to the world the best you have
And the best will come back to you.

Board of Education

Left to right, Mr. George Jordan Jr., Mr. Peter Robinson, Mr. William Fahey, Pres., Mr. George Snyder, Mr. Chester Oakley, Mr. F. Stanton, Sup. Prin., Mr. William Rakert, Clerk, Mr. Walter Post, Mr. W. Walker Bostwick, Treas.

MR. FRANCIS W. STANTON
Supervising Principal

A man can fail many times, but he isn't a failure until he begins to blame somebody else.

MR. EDWARD J. ROCHE
Elementary Supervisor

The necessity of making choices and decisions is with us constantly.
Correct decisions could benefit others and minimize our problems.

Office Staff

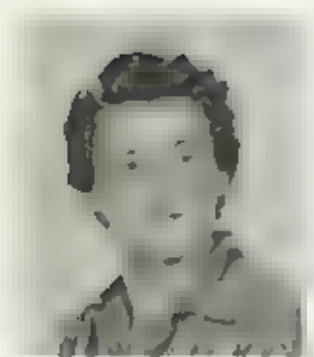

Mrs. Simmons, Mr. Stanton, Mrs. Kibbe.

The Class of 1961 pauses to honor the memory of Mr. Lindley DeGarmo, living yet in the minds and hearts of us all.

Class Poem

"Unforgetting Hearts"

Listen hard and you will hear
In these aged walls of stone,
Echoes left from long gone years,
Cries of students briefly known.

Yes, the school's an empty den,
The summer months have come;
But you can hear it all again,
Or has your heart grown numb?

The football field is empty, true.
But pace the emerald grass.
Don't you hear that dismal boo
When Pine Plains drops the pass?

Down deserted halls you steal,
Lost now, out of place.
But no, this is all unreal,
Shut your eyes to empty space.

Heed the calls from youth to youth,
Hear their heels harshly scuff,
It seems they've found an ancient truth,
"Hey, this math is rough!"

Books bang, lockers slam,
Piercing bells now shrill;
Heartfelt groans greet exams,
And then, all falls still.

The Class of '61 is gone,
As every class must go;
But immortality will dawn,
When memories start to flow.

Donna Wilke

Class Will

Being of sound body and weak mind, we, the Class of 1961, hereby bequeath:

To the Faculty: thanks for all you've done;
Now that it's over, we'll admit it was fun.

To anyone who'll take it: a little advice:
Just getting by will not suffice;
Do a little more than is assigned,
And you'll find each cloud is silver-lined.

Barbara and Jon, who share their name
Console Nancy and Margaret,
Whose problem's the same.

Jimmy Ball, who's fast on the court,
Leaves Lou Galm his place as a sport.

"Deutschland uber alles," Judi throws in,
And wills Roger Herman her lederhosen.

Elaine who has such lovely blond hair
Leaves a lock for Margie to wear.

Stig Berge, who must end his stay,
Invites you all to visit Norway.

Maggie Buch, who does noon-hour duty,
Leaves a piece of pizza for Trudy.

Gary Burton, whose jokes aren't so bad,
Leaves Steve Jones a copy of MAD.

Darla Camburn leaves her hook shot,
For Celia B. to use or not.

To Rodney, who is good with plows,
Albert leaves his way with cows.

Jimmy Coons, with a multitude of kin,
Leaves Julia Coons his initial pin.

Della leaves her wedding veil
To Carol P., who has found her male.

Class Will Continued

Bill Peck inherits a strange new toy;
Joe Edward's role of delivery boy.

Frank Elsbree, a most cheerful guy,
Tells Doris Harrison not to sigh.

Karl Filippini, our soda jerk,
Tells Bill Schirmir never to shirk.

Maida and Mary, a pair with the most
Tell Donna Pulver not to leave her Post.

Cynthia Grant, who fears her fate,
Leaves Rick Osofsky orders to wait.

Priscilla and Kathy leave gobs of smiles
To Nancy Kilmer to carry her miles.

For Pat Pendergast, who walks to school,
Eddie leaves a non-partisan mule.

Sally leaves her flirtatious ways
To Linda Roche, whom nothing will faze.

Roger Hetherington, who's really hip,
Wills Jack Brewster his scissors grip.

Louise leaves her typing skill
To Joe Giove, who's printing still.

Wayne Knickerbocker, who won't be around,
Leaves Dick Hutchings his place on the mound.

Gayle, whose love life involves much mail,
Directs Ginny Beck to a stationery sale.

John McGhee leaves his periscope
To Howard Sigler, to give him hope.

Herman Meccariello, who has quite a name,
Leaves to his brother one of the same.

Moretta leaves her "inside track"
For Lorraine Izzo to try her knack.

Mary leaves her way with the Heights
To Donna Shultz, who also rates.

Ward, who plays a swingin' guitar,
Tells Pete Cahill he should go far.

Betty Lou leaves a bottle of pills
For Marie Heady to cure all ills.

Evelyn leaves an Indian nickel
To Carol Wheeler and Beverly Stickle.

Clarice Roy, so very blase',
Leaves Liz and John a quick "touche"

Gene Sheldon, of the FFA
Leaves Earl Millius a bale of hay.

Doris Smith, of cough drop fame,
Tells Leona McLaughlin to enjoy her name.

Dave Snyder, not to leave in vain,
Gives Frank Ahern his choo-choo train.

Roger Snyder, who's quite a cook,
Leaves Sue Fleischhauer his recipe book.

Jill Steckler, who collects class rings,
Wishes Betsy luck with her King.

Martin Thurst, who builds Eiffel Towers,
Gives Bruce Dolemski his creative powers.

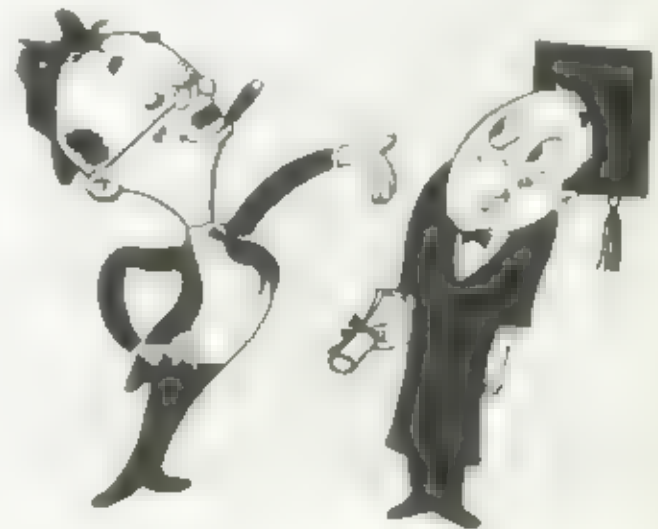

A dented helmet Allan wills
To cushion Randy Lydon's spills.

Peyton White, who sleeps in class,
Tells Ted Taylor how to pass.

Donna leaves her microphone
For Carol to use when she comes home.

We're finished now, though we didn't think we'd make it;
And we'll leave the school . . . but we'd rather take it.

November 11 - VICTORY!

December 23 - "WONDERLAND BY NIGHT"

Who's Who

Adams, Barbra Lynn, born October 27, 1943. Miss Adams, now Mrs. Kenneth Knapp, is presently living on her husband's dairy farm in their home town, Pine Plains, N. Y. Miss Adams had dreamed of becoming a private secretary to a business tycoon, earning a fabulous salary, and having a rose in a bud vase beside her typewriter. Although her aspirations just didn't seem to be in the stars, Miss Adams has never lost hope, and to keep in practice she works for her husband, ordering fertilizer for him in her neat typing and taking dictation from him while he cleans the barn. Unfortunately, she has to burn all her precious notes daily, lest the children should somehow figure out what they mean.

Adams, Jon Holden, born March 24, 1943. After years of attempting to segregate business and pleasure, Mr. Adams gave up the struggle, moved to Norway, and became the world's first ski lawyer. Mr. Adams, recently the subject of a feature story in LIFE magazine, straps on his skis and whizzes from courthouse to courthouse. The fallacies of this practice, however, were amply exhibited when Mr. Adams lost an important case when a sudden thaw left him stranded in the mountains.

Ball, James Andrew, born October 11, 1942. Mr. Ball earned a place in the history of his Alma Mater by establishing an absolutely unparalleled absentee record. Not only was he absent more than anyone else, but he was absent only on the CHOICE days - days when term papers and book reports were due, days when tests were being given, days when they were calling for the Christmas movies, etc. After setting such a fine example in high school, Mr. Ball went on to the Army, which explains the present superiority of the Navy.

Bauer, Judith Ann, born February 8, 1944. Miss Bauer once had visions of a fashion career, but when leopard-skin sneakers went out of fashion, she found herself without a foot to stand on, and went back to her original love - cheerleading. Miss Bauer, who will celebrate her ninety-fourth birthday next week, is still going strong, although she complains that her scare crow jump isn't what it used to be.

Benson, Elaine - born November 30, 1943. Miss Benson, who spent much of her youth explaining to former friends that she is no relation to Ezra Taft, became the toast of Hollywood as the star of Ingmar Bergman's revival of the ancient fairy tale "Rapunzel." Miss Benson played a beatnik who saves her bearded boy friend from the local Sanitation Dept., which has come to give him a bath, by letting him cling to her fabulously long braids and lowering him out of a third-story window. At the conclusion of this, her first and last role, Miss Benson bought a controlling interest in an aspirin company, and retired.

Berge, Stig, born March 28, 1942. After being awarded the Bronze Job's Medal for his patience with Americans who mispronounce his name, Mr. Berge returned to his native Norway, and opened an inn for homesick American tourists. The now-famous inn features hamburger, pizza, Coca-Cola, and Southern fried chicken, and all the waiters speak nothing but slang.

Bush, Margaret, born January 4, 1943. It was in her Senior year of high school that Miss Bush went to work in a local teen-age hang-out. For months she endured what she now calls "basic training," serving dozens of hungry, hurried, jostling students, over the din of a jukebox and the claimer of the noisy customers. When she deemed herself sufficiently conditioned, Miss Bush left her job and her home town - and went to work for the Harry Trumans.

Burton, Gary Russell, born January 13, 1944. Voted by his classmates the Graduate with the Best Memory and the Worst Jokes. Mr. Burton, with the constant discouragement from faithful friends, followed his early inclination and became an entertainer. Mr. Burton is unemployed at the moment, because he spends so much time in court discussing stolen jokes that he has no time to work. He is, however, a great favorite with juries all over the nation, and always begins his testimony with "A funny thing happened to me on my way to court this morning . . ."
Buys, Caroline Joy, born July 28, 1943. After setting a silence in high school (four audible syllables a year), Miss Buys went to work in the same manner: she became the star vocalist of "Silent Records, Inc." Following a long and successful career, Miss Buys eloped with the Prince of Lubagasia. As the Prince's former fiancée said, "It's the quiet one you want to watch out for!"

Camburn, Darla May, born February 20, 1943. In her youth, Miss Camburn spent a good deal of time in the local Night Club claiming to be taking Italian lessons from the head waiter. Miss Camburn has pursued similar studies throughout the ensuing years. She is now one of the foremost linguists of our time, although publicity on the matter is discouraged, for fear Miss Camburn's unorthodox methods would start a new trend in education.

Clum, Albert Leroy, born February 21, 1943. Mr. Clum is mainly remembered for entering the school in 1948 and not being seen or heard from until he stepped up to receive his diploma, thirteen years later. Mr. Clum then astounded the nation by developing a new, ultra-modern sign language, a great boon to the American Indian.

Coons, James Martin, born February 4, 1943. Known in his high school as "Dreamy-Eyed Jim," Mr. Coons attracted notice as the male model in the "Maybelline for Men" ads. Mr. Coons was sued recently by a competing cosmetic company which accused him of wearing false eye lashes. Mr. Coons, however, was acquitted and awarded a public apology. "Honesty in advertising," remarked the judge, "is to be commended."

Culver, Della Irene, born August 23, 1942. The former Miss Culver maintains that any problems she may have now are caused by an early history of confusion. Her name was Della, she liked "Irene" better, and her family called her "Taddy." She solved the whole problem by getting married and making everyone call her "Mrs. Remsburger." Her husband says it does seem a little formal at the breakfast table, but if it makes her happy, he's content.

Edwards, Joseph Harold, born September 26, 1943. Now noted as Pine Plains Central School's only forty-year-old undergraduate, Mr. Edwards owes his present position to a money-collecting job he was given in his Senior year. Edwards became so fond of this chore he couldn't bear to give it up, has spent the succeeding years managing not to graduate so as to continue in his beloved occupation.

Elsbree, Frank Charles, Jr., born May 10, 1943. After being blessed with twin sisters while still in junior high school, Mr. Elsbree became a changed man. He walked about in silence, a soul apart. Later in the Army, he was cited nine times for service above and beyond the call of duty. Each time, Mr. Elsbree seemed astonished at the praise he received. He would gesture toward the smoking battlefields, flaming buildings, advancing enemy lines, and cry, "You call that danger?" For his bravery, Mr. Elsbree was offered a month's leave and a free trip home to visit his family. Pale of face, cowering back against a wall, his voice quivering with fear, he refused to go.

Filippini, Karl Fredrick, born October 21, 1943. Mr. Filippini was virtually unknown until the recent publication of his semi-autobiographical, "How To Make Experience Pay Off," explains in his book that, in choosing his career as a young man, he tried to select some line of work in which he had previous experience. The limiting factors thus imposed failed to dismay Mr. Filippini. He became, in this order, the only full-grown delivery boy on his home town newspaper, a campus bill collector, and a soda jerk. Mr. Filippini finally, as he says, "found myself" in the last job he tried, polishing apples.

Flannery, Mary Louise, April 11, 1943. After surviving braces, red rashes, Man-Tan, and her cottage cheese diets, Miss Flannery decided to let others profit from her experiences, now teaches a "What-Not-To-Do Beauty Course" at the Flannery Charm School. Other courses offered there: "How To Make The Most Of All Your Chins," "How To Smile While Concealing Your Braces," and "How To Get Along With Slender Friends."

Grant, Cynthia Caroline, born May 30, 1943. A noted star of stage and screen, Miss Grant is best known for her role of the "Boo-boo-ba-doop Girl" in the "Siegfield Follies Again." Miss Grant, also notorious for her preference of younger men, is engaged to Rick-O, famed "Limping Lineman" of U.C.L.A. The couple have been engaged for nine years, now. They plan to marry as soon as Rick-O graduates, but he hates to give up a paying position.

Hedges, Priscilla Ann, born May 30, 1943. Miss Hedges, who still holds the all-time Late-To-Homeroom record at her Alma Mater, now runs a nursery school, putting to use her extensive previous experience in the line (she is the oldest of six children). Miss Hedges is particularly noted for her ability to develop potential artistic talent among her young pupils by teaching them to use paints. Miss Hedges has had extensive previous experience in that line, also.

Hericourt, Edward Alphonse, born November, 1942. Mr. Hericourt reached the public eye during the spectacular "Imposter" trial. The case involved his land-lady, who had illusions of being spied upon, and over-heard Hericourt say he was going to "put some skirts on." She then jumped to the conclusion that female visitor was really he, and attacked the caller. Strangely, the land-lady seemed somewhat chagrined to learn, in court, that Hericourt was speaking of putting skirts on his car.

Hermans, Sally Edith, born March 17, 1943. After taking extensive phys. ed courses in college, Miss Hermans shook the very foundations of teaching tradition by becoming a boys' gym teacher. When questioned about the difficulties involved, Miss Hermans smiles her famed, mystic, Mona Lisa smile, and relates the story of the woman who served in the British Army for 52 years without detection by the authorities.

Hetherington, Roger Alan, born August 8, 1943 After giving up promising careers as (1) a pianist, (2) a guitarist, (3) a singer, (4) a football player, (5) a race car driver, (6) a wrestler, and (7) an AA advisor, Mr. Hetherington turned his back on the phony, sophisticated world of glitter, and devoted the rest of his life to selling his mother's fudge.

Hoag, Maida Jane, born July 13, 1943 After devoting endless weeks of work to the creation, management, and production of her high school yearbook, Miss Hoag, then noted for her patience in working with her sometimes less than helpful classmates, went on to devote her life to training chimpanzees. She says she greatly prefers it.

Klink, Louise Elizabeth, born May 21, 1943. Despite the over-whelming honor of having jails all over the country named after her, Miss Klink has remained as humble and down-to-earth as she always was. Recently, however, she indulged in an excess of down-to-earthiness and collapsed, unconscious. She is at present a patient at the Weary People's Hospital, where she is recovering from nervous exhaustion and ten broken fingernails, suffered through her frantic and tireless typing for the PINE NEEDLE and the PINE LOG.

Knickerbocker, Wayne, born November 25, 1943. Noted throughout his high school years as an outstanding athlete, Mr. Knickerbocker was hailed as one of the nation's up-and-comings. He was the star pitcher of his home town baseball team and a feature player in the local bowling leagues. Unfortunately, Mr. Knickerbocker's promising career came to a grinding halt one day when he was due in an afternoon game and absent-mindedly took the wrong ball with him to the mound. Before anyone could stop him, he'd barreled the big black ball down to home plate, knocking over the batter and smashing the catcher, the umpire, and the coach deep into the dust.

Layton, Gayle, born August 14, 1943 Miss Layton, known in her home town as "The Little Bo-Peep of Hunns Lake," has achieved notable fame as the author of the best-selling "Miss Layton's Letters." Miss Layton claims that she got her start in letter-writing when she went with a boy who lived in Long Island, and only sold her work because the postal rates kept going up and she needed some money.

McGhee, John Alfred, born September 7, 1943 Upon graduating from Pine Plains Central School, Mr. McGhee received a prize for serving on more clean-up committees than anyone in the history of the school. Mr. McGhee is now a clerk with the Dutchess County Pigs' Tail Curler Co. He holds a very high position there. That is, he perches up on a high stool because otherwise he can't see over the adding machine.

Meccariello, Herman Gene, born June 6, 1942 As the result of an early, unrequited love, Mr. Meccariello has devoted his life to being near and yet unseen by the object of his affections. Mr. Meccariello also manages to keep track of all his many friends' love affairs and to advise them on how to settle their little difference. He has been so successful at this sort of thing that he was thinking of opening a branch "Dear Abby" office, but he is kept too busy following his lady love about the continent to spare the time.

Napoli, Moretta, born February 21, 1944 Long noted as one of Hollywood's sharpest-penned columnists, Miss Napoli, who astounded the glittering society she frequents by never wearing a hat, recently announced she plans to give up all the glamour and glory of her present life to become a den mother . . . in a Lyon's den.

Orton, Mary Louise, born August 23, 1943. Miss Orton amused her high school classmates by planning her life out step by step, year by year. She knew - and let the world know - when and whom she would marry, how many and what variety children she would have, and the exact month they would be born. Her friends stopped laughing when Miss Orton proceeded to do just what she'd always said she would. She now operates an extremely successful fortune - telling business in Stanfordville.

Potter, Allen Ward, born September 16, 1943. After years of experience in high school entertaining on the Rooting Squad bus, Mr. Potter achieved fame and glory as a folk singer, and was given the great honor of singing the "Star Spangled Banner" at Robert Kennedy's inauguration. Mr. Potter retired shortly thereafter under pressure from Republican friends, and opened his own bus line, featuring singing drivers. Mr. Potter's own composition, the "Step to the Rear of the Bus" aria, is one of America's most treasured native works.

Retzlaw, Elizabeth Louise, born December 14, 1943. After spending her youth the victim of multitudinous mysterious ailments, Miss Retzlaw rejected all symptoms of frailty and became the first woman to conquer outer space. Not only did she reach, land at, and love on Mars for five years, but she added immeasurably to her collection of rare, unidentifiable diseases while there. Miss Retzlaw is now considered the world's foremost living authority on the enjoyable subject of ill Health.

Rifenburgh, Evelyn, born February 2, 1943. After years of quiet, inconspicuous existence in a sleepy country town, Miss Rifenburgh was discovered one day by an advertising agency talent scout. Immediately thereafter she rose to fame and fortune as the luscious-locked, Titan-tressed, "Does she or doesn't she?" girl. Miss Rifenburgh, now retired, is presently writing her memoirs, entitled, "I Want To Dye!"

Roy, Elizabeth Clarice, born September 26, 1943. Objecting to the name "Elizabeth," Miss Roy spent most of her early school years campaigning to be called just "Clarice Roy" and upon achieving that decided to cut it down further to "Clarice," thus joining the ranks of Liberace, Napoleon, Garbo, and Pavlova. Later in life she went still further, devoted most of her time to immortalizing herself in the memorable manner of Zorro, boldly emblazoning her "C" on all within reach of her fingernails.

Sheldon, Eugene, born September 24, 1943. Mr. Sheldon created headlines when he was fired from his father's farm after studying agriculture for eight years, in high school and college. Asked for a comment, Mr. Sheldon Senior, who had just sent his son out to look for another job, grunted, 'Course I fired him. Studied for eight years and never learned how to milk a cow!'

Smith, Doris Anne, born October 17, 1942. Miss Smith, who earned immortality in her high school years by eating aspirins, had to give up that habit later when she went to work in her brother's cough drop company. They said the publicity was bad for business.

Snyder, David Armstrong, born April 27, 1943. Noted during his school years as the chief engineer of the Model Railroad Club, Mr. Snyder gave up this promising career to become an international counter-spy. He now credits his fabulous success as an under-cover agent to his early years of experience in sneaking out of French class.

Snyder, Roger Wolcott, born April 27, 1943. His schoolmates remember Mr. Snyder chiefly for two things: (1) spending one whole Monday arguing that the next day was not Tuesday, and (2) being unable to choose a career for himself because of two conflicting interests: engineering and cooking. Mr. Snyder finally stopped trying to make a choice, and combined his two talents. He now makes the best Devil's Food Eiffel Towers in the world.

Steckler, Jill, born October 8, 1943. Miss Steckler's name has blazed in lights on Broadway and in Hollywood for many years, but she is best known for the tremendous efforts she put forth during World War III. Miss Steckler traveled hundreds of miles, ignoring fatigue and danger, to entertain overseas troops: she organized bandage-rolling clubs all over the nation, and when the metal shortage approached an emergency state, Miss Steckler sacrificed all the friendship rings she had collected over the years, allowing them to be melted down into tracks, tanks, and battleships.

Thurst, Martin Henry, born October 16, 1941. After being hailed as the hero of the year when he constructed Eiffel Tower II for "An Evening In Paris," Mr. Thurst went on to become a beverage salesman. He is now saving up for a trip to France to inspect the original tower and see how his creation compares with it. Mr. Thurst says he has the greatest confidence in his construction because he used a really superior crepe paper.

Wheeler, Allan William, born October 31, 1943. Mr. Wheeler, who was frequently chastized during his high school years for getting his blood all over the football field, later went on to bigger and better things. He became a professional athlete and proceeded to baptize every square inch of playing ground in the country. He was a great success and was really leaving his mark (red) on the world of sports, when he suddenly and inexplicably gave it all up to return to high school and major in gym.

White, Peyton, born November 11, 1943 After successfully napping his way through high school and college, Mr. White wandered about from profession to profession. At one time he was a pilot with Unlimited Airlines, but had to give it up after absent-mindedly flying a Chartered Flight to Honolulu, to South-west Siberia. The frozen, grass-skirted passengers were especially indignant. The flight remained an unexplained mystery. Undaunted, Mr. White went on to fame and fortune as a model for Walt Disney, who at that time was discontented with some of his Seven Dwarves, and needed new inspiration for "Sleepy."

Wilke, Donna Graham, born April 9, 1943. Miss Wilke, still being sought by a few faithful friends and relatives, has been listed as a Missing Person for some years. She has not been seen or heard from since she was run out of town on a rail after writing a "Who's Who" for her high school yearbook.

Zamoroeze, Kathleen Emma, born December 17, 1943 Twice voted The Girl With The Most Unpronounceable Name, Miss Zamoroeze, despite humble beginnings, is now listed among America's millionairesses. She is one of the few women in history to make her fortune with an invention of her very own. Miss Zamoroeze owes her present income-tax bracket to a fabulous bubble-gum formula which she discovered one day when she was blowing a bubble and it broke and got mixed up in her make-up. The result was the most colorful, long-lasting bubbles in history; and won fame and fortune for Miss Zamoroeze.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society extends throughout the United States, and admits to its membership, students who qualify on four points - Scholarship, Leadership, Character, and Service.

These points may be briefly defined as follows - Scholarship is studying for the love of knowledge. Leadership is the ability to lead others along the right paths. Character is the force within a person that distinguishes him from all others. Service is the will to serve.

By their efforts and their outstanding qualities, the above students have earned the right to become members of this group.

Hold Thy Lighted Lamp on High,

Be a Star in Someone's Sky.

Football

After a 2 years absence from the gridirons of Dutchess County the Pine Plains Bombers returned to action.

On the first of September about 30 boys showed up to tell everyone that they were ready to play football. Thru September, the team worked hard and on October 1, they encountered Haldane High School at Cold Spring. Although the Centrals came out at the end with a 13-0 loss, the boys had proved that they were very capable of playing football. The starting line up consisted of Bob Barnett, left end, left-tackle Herman Maccarillo, left-guard Wayne Wilson, center Dick Hutchings, right-guard P. J. Agnelli, right-tackle Lou Galm, right-end Jon Adams. The backfield was handled by Dave Barton who held down the quarterback slot, Chris Sidoli at left halfback, Ward Potter at fullback and Wayne Knickerbocker at wingback.

The Cold Springs lads were able to score one touchdown in the first quarter and one in the third period of the game. The Pine Plains attack was stalled by the opposition once on the 10 yard line in the first period, and once in the second period when the ball was on the 2 yd. line, and the clock ran out ending the period.

During the game, Ward Potter led the P.P.C.S. attack with 72 yds. gained in 7 tries. Chris Sidoli gained 25 yds. in 9 tries. Wayne Knickerbocker carried the ball for 6 yds. in 2 attempts; quarter-back Dave Barton passed for total of 87 yds.

Next, the team traveled to Oakwood to play the Quakers. Here the team was outweighed again by a large margin and Pine Plains went down to its second defeat by the score of 20-6.

Pine Plains was unable to get a sustained offensive attack going and thus was held scoreless until Ward Potter returned a kickoff 85 yds. for the only P. P. score. At this point the game was tied at 6-6.

In the third period the Oakwood team put on an offensive march which lasted throughout the remainder of the game.

The Bombers next entertained Red Hook's team on the home field. Red Hookers defeated Pine Plains with the score of 20-0.

Football Cont.

During the first period of play the Hookers jumped on to a 20-0 score and it looked as if the local boys just weren't in the game. But the P. P. C. S. team turned on Red Hook and held them from scoring for the remainder of the game. During the game Roger Hetherington took over the helm for the Plainsmen and did a great job. Also Dennis Rallick played at left halfback and picked up 16 yds. in 3 tries, Wayne Knickerhocker gained 26 yds. in 7 attempts, and Ward Potter put together 106 yds. in 13 tries. Credit has to be given to the Pine Plains linemen who opened the holes for their backs to drive through. Those boys were guards, Agnelli and Wilson, tackles, Meccarello and Galm, center, Hutchings, ends, Adams and Barnett.

The locals next visited Millbrook to take on the Memorials. The Millbrook team showed a great offensive attack and just ran over the Pine Plains defense, defeating the Centrals with the tune of 27-6.

The lone touchdown for the home forces was made by Sid Osofsky who returned to the lineup at left halfback.

Dover Plains was next on the list for the Pine Plains team and they managed to come out with a 6-0 victory. Dover scored the touch down with 2 minutes remaining in the game.

Credit is given to the Pine Plains defense for the sternness which they displayed in the holding of the Dover offensive attack. The forward wall, which was made up of Galm, Meccarello, Wilson, Agnelli, Allen, and Snuck, was truly great. The backs also did a wonderful job, as did Marty Corey, who played end.

The leading ground gainer was Sid Osofsky, who had 16 yds. in 5 attempts. Ward Potter had 20 yds. in 4 tries, and quarterback Hetherington with 12 yds. in 3 tries.

Next, the team traveled to Pawling where the Plainsmen pulled from behind to tie Pawling in the final period of play. Scoring the T. D. for Pine Plains was Sid Osofsky, who ran 25 yds.

Pawling scored in the 1st period of play and never came close again. The Pine Plains defense allowed Pawling only 16 yds. rushing in the 2nd half.

Football Cont.

For the final game of the season for the home forces, Pine Plains tackled the tough team of Greer. Coming into the game as underdogs the Plains men gave Greer its second loss of the season. With the running of Sid Osofsky, Ward Potter and Dennis Riddick the team picked up 278 yds. during the game. The first score was made by Burger of Greer. He picked up a fumble on his own 41 yd. line and galloped on to score a T.D. That was the end of Greer's scoring for the remainder of the afternoon.

Now Pine Plains took over and marched from its own 24 yd. line to the T. D. with Potter carrying the pigskin from the 3rd yd. line. Pine Plains next recovered a Greer fumble on Greer's 21 yd. line. Osofsky, Riddick and Potter carried Pine Plains to its second T.D.

In the last period of play Pine Plains again scored on a quarterback sneak by Tog. Hetherington from the 1 yd. line. From here, Pine Plains ran out the clock allowing Greer to have the ball only once during the whole period. Along with great team spirit, the linemen, consisting of Galm, Meccariello, Wilson, Agnelli, and Hutchings opened tremendous holes for their backfield comrades.

Pine Plains, playing for its first time in 3 years, wound up with 1 win, 5 losses, and 1 tie. Even though the won-lost record was not great, the team will remember what they have gained from the service of Coach Barton, Mr. Foster, and Mr. Caswell.

Pine Plains was also fortunate to have 2 members of its team chosen to the Bi-Valley League All-Star team. These two boys were Capt. Lou Galm, named at tackle, and Ward Potter, picked for the fullback slot. Both were mentioned on the first team.

The team will miss the services of Seniors Jon Adams, Wayne Knickerbocker, Ward Potter, Allan Wheeler, and Capt. Herman Meccariello; but returning will be most of the 35 boys who played this year. Good Luck, Fellas!

VARSIITY BASKETBALL

The Pine Plains Varsity had another successful season under the leadership of Coach Barton. Those who made the team of 60-61 were Dave Barton, Sid Osofsky, Marty Corey, Peyton White, Dennis Raderick, Ken Brizzi, Roger Herman, Rick Osofsky, Jim Ball, Lou Galm, Ken Adams, Bob Barnett, and Herm Meccatiello. The starring five were Jim Ball, Sid Osofsky, Dave Barton, Roger Herman, and Ken Brizzi. In the first game the Centrals played host to the Websteruck team. Without much trouble the home forces picked up their first win by the score of 51-20, Rog Herman and Sid Osofsky led the way.

Next the team traveled to Staatsburg, and they came home with a 63-0 victory. Again Roger Herman and Sid Osofsky did most of our scoring and rebounding.

The third victory came with the defeat of Roe-Jan. The final score being 44-27.

The Plainsmen traveling to Arlington again came home with another win added on to their list of victims. This time the score was 46-40.

After two weeks of vacation the Plainsmen traveled to Websteruck. The team ended with a 57-25 victory.

Rhinebeck came next and suffered a 50-31 loss. Oakwood entertained the Pine Plains quintet on the former's court. Without much trouble the P.P.C.S. team came home with a 61-30 win.

Tivoli was next encountered and they went down in defeat to the Bombers to the tune of 59-26. Wappingers was also beaten by the score of 54-35.

Staatsburg came out at the end of a 47-20 loss. Again Tivoli and Rhinebeck were victims of the Plainsmen, the scores being 58-30 and 58-29 respectively.

The Rhinebeck win was the 12th in a row for the Bombers this year and 35th in succession over a three year period.

The Pine Plains quintet traveled to Wappingers to take on the always dangerous Indians and the boys who downed the blue and whites came home with a 58-39 victory tucked under them.

J. V. BASKETBALL

The J. V. team, being all new this year, showed Robert Podnis, David Wright, Alvis Upitis, Ronnie Potter, Dane Archer, Gerry Shuck, Larry Sauter, Bill Hedges, Donald Bathrick, Ronnie Withers, Richard Withers, and Errol Filippini.

The starring five are Alvis Upitis, Errol Filippini, Bob Podnis, Gerry Shuck and Larry Sauter. The team record was not impressive but it gave the boys the experience that every team needs in its first season of play.

MAKE YOUR OFFICIAL PHOTOGRAPHER YOUR MASTER OF CEREMONIES

Let us be the official photographer of your life's important events . . . for the really good picture you need to lend that first big job . . . your engagement and wedding photographs . . . those priceless portraits of your first child (and the others that follow.) Only truly professional studio portraits can give an individual and distinctive dignity to the visual record of your life . . . and our artist-photographer is a true professional.

We are proud to be the official photographer of your graduating class, and we hope that this is the beginning of a lifelong relationship.
